Bomb Threat

On 12/02/2005 at approximately 9:30 a.m. a bomb threat was received with a non-specific threat against a state judicial courthouse. Shortly thereafter additional threats were made against judicial courthouses and state facilities.

In the interest of public safety a decision was made to clear court house facilities. The State Police are working with the Judicial Branch as each facility is cleared for an examination of the premises.

The threat has prompted a criminal investigation by the Connecticut State Police Detectives. The investigation is continuing and ongoing.
